

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1859.

THE DAILY APPEAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 4, 1859.

REBELLION'S COURT.—The Recruit had been tried and condemned to hang yesterday.

ALARM.—The alarm of a small explosion last night, was caused by a chimney burst at the Furniture Factory.

CONCEALED WEAPON.—For carrying a disk concealed about his person James Ward was hung twenty dollars by the authorities.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Major James Ward was yesterday arrested and placed in confinement in the State Penitentiary.

EGYPTIAN.—A learned parrot that Col. Finnie was superintending the re-examining of a number of bound magazines into Court Square.

RAILROAD COURT.—As this Court yesterday, A. D. Hunter, Mr. Alfred Collette, and M. G. Davis, the Assessors of the Fourteenth District, and Gen. L. Richards of the Fifth District.

FIRE ON ST. PATRICK STREET.—A fire broke out in a cabin on St. Patrick street, in Mr. Edwards' lot, on St. Patrick street, before 6 P.M. It was quickly extinguished, with but slight damage being done.

REGULAR REPORT.—The Recruit's Report for the month of December, states that he had 100 days during the month, 300 cases; fees, $100; 257 discharged, 252 paid from 175 cases, and 252 remitted to the State, $100.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Two men who had come down from Pittsburgh, on a visit, named Samuel Young and Theodore Hilderman were arrested in Friday evening, and were committed to the State Prison, on charges of having been engaged in a plot to burn down the city, some years ago, the report says.

DETROIT'S AMERICAN WELL.—Col. Cockrell has perfected arrangements to keep constantly at the bar of this country unrivaled medical and medicinal water, which is equal to any in the world, and will be of great service to many.

TRINITY.—For this paper we thank our friends, F. D. Dean, of the Memphis, Charles C. Shultz, of the Newbern, E. W. McAllister, of the New Adams, D. C. Chapman, the Adams, S. R. Davis, of the Memphis, Thomas A. and the whole staff of the Calle Magazine, Courier.

ATTRACTION, NO. 2, KNOXVILLE.—The Knights Templars in and about Memphis, are reported to meet at the Womans House, this evening, at 8 o'clock, to make arrangements for a grand ball.

MEMPHIS.—We have no information.

MEMPHIS.—We have no information.